Well I am in the process of moving for the next few days.

I came close just moving back to the Philippines but that maybe in a year or so.

Leah txt me yesterday, saying since I not supporting her she wondering if she should fine another guy. Well I can not support her. I am barely supporting my self. My Truck been repoed and again I am finding my self living the retired life. I am too young for that..

A good relationship is not based on financial support one way.

I can see some who are placing an ad. "if you are independent. please leave a message". Some guys are scared because some are expecting "M" in a relationship.

Am wondering. now a days, love can't be love without $???????

Coastie. here in our site. you can read success with Tom. Mark. Joe, Jason and EXCITED.
