Hitting the Road again tomorrow

Posted by Coastie - 2009/12/06 16:18

Tomorrow (Monday Dec 7th) I will be leaving back out again leased onto a new Company. I am not sure how often I will be able to visit so do not give up on me.

When I moved back here from the Philippines I came back to go back to work. I also set goals to meet and so far I have met some of them and still working on meeting the others.

Goal 1 was to get back into the Industry without having to go back to school. Mission accomplished

Goal 2 was to get my own Truck, DONE.

Goal 3 Get my own Business going, 50% Done.

Goal 4 is to get the Business running and set up where I do not have to stand over it 24/7 and I can if so desired run it from the Philippines. ( Would be a tax break if Business Headquarters was not in the USA.)

The last time was talk was about organizing your business.

I talk to my mother who lives in Seattle about US drivers who really hit the road and earn high. But everyone knew driving in the Philippines is not easy as driving the roads in the US. But my brother got 96 for the road test and he has a defective eyesight but driving is his dream next to his skin. He had never drive here but he learn in the US. Now he has his own car and drive his kids to school and goes to his work . He might not be driving trucks like you do but he admitted professional US drivers are professional to the bone.

Back to trucking.. here in PI one of my brother runs a rice mill and delivers and he make sure he has freight loaded coming back , for this, he makes a good profit.

Nah! we won't give you up Coastie. You are always a part of the family. We would always love to read your posts.. . but Miss Lizzie is one of your best.

Happy driving Coastie!!

Thanks guys. I went to Atlanta yesterday and picked up my trailer. But no load so I came back home. Now I am sitting at home waiting to be dispatched. Will see what happens next.

Last night I got lucky and was able to chat with Jenny some. Couple days ago I sent her an email of a dream and a desire I have about the Philippines, and she responded to me via our chat she liked the idea. With my Trucking business that dream can come true. The dream was going to the Philippines and opening a Home for children of the street that we hear about.

Well I loaded up with equipment in Belton SC and carried it to Pikesville Kentucky. Now I am in Charlston, WV picking up to carry some construction equipment to Salem VA. I went and loaded it yesterday but it turned out to be an Oversize load and requires permits so I had to wait over night.

Coastie. don't tell you are going to celebrate holidays driving . In the US. do you hit the road on special occasions such as Christmas and New Year. I understand private cars will but what about freights and business vehicles? It must be lonely working and driving far away to celebrate Christmas alone.

HAHAHA Some company Owners want their drivers on the road 24/7 and does not care if it a holiday or not. But that not the case now for me. I am now south bound heading to Florida and then I will reload to be back home in Georgia for the holidays.

I stopped yesterday waiting for night to drive cause of to many UNSAFE Drivers. But I bit my own foot. SNOW STORM came in so I stayed the night and will be leaving out at sunrise.

That is the difference when you are working for the company. you can't decide for yourself without asking permission. Now. the advantage of owning and driving it at your own disposal is that you can have and spent holidays. but the disadvantage of owning it is you can be lazy driving anytime.

About the snow storm. I have not seen much snow in my life only at a normal stage at Mt Fuji. Perhaps I will be wearing 5 layers of clothes and still shiver.

When I got there in the US ( mom leaves in Seattle) I will avoid traveling during winter time.but maybe it will also be exciting hitting the road during that season.

These are some tips when driving on a snowy road.

<http://www.georgianc.on.ca>

Below are some safety tips for safe winter driving:

- * Reduce speed when roads are icy, wet or snow-covered.
- * Reduce speeds further when approaching crosswalks and/or school zones.
- * Check road and weather conditions before leaving on road trips – skip or delay the trip if driving conditions are not ideal.

If your car gets stuck in a blizzard or snow storm:

- * Remain calm, stay in your vehicle. For fresh air, open a window slightly on the sheltered side away from the wind.
- * If your exhaust system is working well, run the vehicle's engine about 10 minutes every half hour. Check the exhaust pipe
  - * periodically to make sure it's not blocked with snow.
  - * Exercise your hands and feet periodically to keep them warm.
  - * In general, keep moving to avoid falling asleep. If you do try to shovel the snow from around your vehicle, avoid over-exertion while shovelling.

Pack a winter survival kit for your vehicle and include the following:

- * Flashlight and batteries
- * Blanket or sleeping bag
- * Extra winter clothing
- * First aid kit
- * Jumper cables
- * Scraper and brush
- * Shovel and storm candles for heat
- * A tin can to melt snow (can be used for drinking water)
- * Instant soup, tea or coffee
- * High energy foods such as nuts or chocolates
- * Sand, road salt or kitty litter for traction
- * Extra fuses and matches
- * Basic tools and replacement parts (e.g., fan belt, spare tire, jack)
- * Flares
- * An emergency supply of prescription drugs (if applicable)
- * Travel with a cellular phone whenever possible

Well just my luck....

Traffic was slow, OK no problem I had plenty of time. All day from 6AM till 2AM total miles driven 233 miles plus 4 miles hooked to a tow truck.:angry:

Toe truck would not take me to a shop, just off the road. $550.00 bill. Road service call $378.00, still not repaired. Motel $84.59... 24 hours enough of freezing. After spending 500.00 on fuel, I am now making $0.00 on this load, and still have a repair bill and posible another tow bill.

Gotten chew out, cused out yet I did nothing wrong. I broke down during a Snow Storm was my only problem.

Now after I do get repaired I will be late for my delivery. 788 miles to go and due there in 3 hours

My! Is there no fireplace near? Till when snow last?

I am hopefully spending Christmas next year in Seattle and I know how much snow could shower.
I will absolutely hide under piles of woven clothes and leave my eyes to see raindrops of snow.

Only 2 States I know of that it does not snow in Hawaii and Florida. Florida will get cold and may get some snow in northern parts in rare occasions. Seattle gets more rain than snow. Washington State though has more than its share of snow.

Dallas TX had 14 inches of snow recently, where I was at in Virginia was knee deep.

I called my Boss and asked for a load going west rather than going back into the Cold Cold North...

I still have to put on piles of clothes, I can't stand the cold weather but I don't have any plans of going back to PI when I get there. I guess there is a little time for me left to share it with my oldies.. I miss them so much!!

Americans come to PI. ( they enjoy the summer breeze) Asian comes to the US. ( they want the taste winter time) that is a cycle.

What about New Year, where are you heading and celebrating the New Year?

Where will I be at for New Year is still up in the air. I am waiting for dispatch as I type this.

But if I had the money to fly to the Philippines right now I would be heading for the airport. I received a text message from my new girl friend that her mom just passed away. Her mom was the same age as I am. Jenny has been saying her mom been pale but refuse to see a doctor, nor allowing her to go to check her out. Jenny is in her final semester in nursing school.

I'm sorry to hear Jenny's mom passed away. Perhaps her mother feeling so ill and wished not to live longer.

But tell Jenny to cheer up. the new year is bringing another hope for a brighter tomorrows.

Happy New Year Coastie! Happy New Year Jenny!

Burial really cost money, much more of living?

But knowing the Filipinos bayanihan . they can make it.

There are foundations who can help her or the barranggay in their location can shoulder the expenses referring to their mayor at the municipal hall ( election is coming).

We were on a busy road last week , driving along with the trailers , vans and trucks loaded with cargoes going South. We saw thieves emptying the tool box on the side of the truck, we gave signals to the driver but they never went down to check. they just continue to drive ignoring the boys getting away with the truck tools.

We concluded that perhaps , the driver and companions are trained not to get down in that case to avoid trouble and mauling.

No, plus currently I do not own a gun. Wish I had a M16 at times, but that's another story in it self.

In order to carry a gun, I would have to have a concealed weapons permit, and the states I travel in has to honor it before I can. And not all states honor other states Weapons permits.

I defend my self other ways. By using cautions, and Being on the Alert. Some times I relax and I know when I do I get a problem, so it not often that I do. Example I got relaxed yesteday and got robbed 60.00 2 credit cards stolen. Ok they got 60.00 in cash but the cards is useless to them. 1. they were maxed out, and 2. was cancealed right after. Plus I remember the truck and who knows what will happen if I see them on the road. "OOOpppps I cut in way to soon, Did you see that fire Ball that Blue truck made?"

No! Don't try to remember them in case you see them on the road. We never know what will happen next. Just be extra careful next time.

Right now I am at home, will be starting a new job this week though.

As I sit here I am getting worried about Jenny. She scared of 3 things. She had to borrow money from a Loan Shark to pay for her Mothers Funeral. Now she scared they will force her into working at a Bar, Into Slavery or kill her. Well she sneaked out of where she was living to another place yesterday, but I had not heard from her since. I am getting a bit nervous...

I think she is just trying to slow down a bit. and put all things together. she is not in any way a member of any syndicate or outlaws to be running for her life.

The money lenders is not going to lend her money if she has no collateral to give. she must have given some . money lenders are willing to wait till she recovered and able to pay, whether it is from " five, six", as we usually call them or money lenders who are legit. Tell her, there is nothing to be afraid of.

Coastie. where are you heading now?B)

Right now I am at home, willl be starting a new job this week though.

As I sit here I am getting worried about Jenny. She scared of 3 things. She had to borrow money from a Loan Shark to pay for her Mothers Funeral. Now she scared they will force her into working at a Bar, Into Slavery or kill her. Well she sneaked out of where she was living to another place yesterday, but I had not heard from her since. I am getting a bit nervous...

She could be exaggerating a bit there Coastie as Apple has said money lenders have patience and they charge interest on the loans, there's no need to run away, just be careful Coastie ;)

No need for her to run away. Hopefully everything will go well.

We really get scared but it is best to try to communicate than being bothered by the thoughts lingering in our mind.

Hope everything goes well.

Well I missed her yesterday, I was online when she came on, but I fell asleep in my chair and did not see that she came until an hour later after she left.

She no longer scared for her self, but for her aunt. It seems one Drama after another.. I am beginning to wonder if this only a show for more money and more money scam...

Well today it was again all Drama chatting with her till I could no longer take it. She had dropped out of School, and got a job. Now today she said she had not been to work with the drama they were stalking her. I can not talk it any more so I went off on her. Maybe said things I should not have, but what done is done, for it all over now.

I'm not going to search any more, not in the mood for another gf to sit back and beg. I can not take it.

One of the reasons I looked over seas is all American Girls was doing the same thing. So I give up...

Leah and I been talking, and I forgiven her for what she has done. She told me one thing, but in reality she only cheated on me, not worked the streets as she first said. A weak moment in life. She broke up due to being ashamed of it.

We will have to talk a lot, and do things differently, if we do get back together.

Well I had a conversation with Jenny this morning, Apparently she had another BF before we broke up. Day after we did break up she was engaged, week later the guy showed up from Alaska, and in 2 weeks she going to Visit Alaska.

Can anyone say RED FLAG?????

Don't worry, she can have the COLD Alaska and yes way to many Issues why I broke up with her. It made her sound more like a scammer, Lier and such. Plus Leah and I have been talking and maybe getting back together. Take a little forgiving, and would nee to work on the trust issue again.

But what I been hearing on the radio this AM, I may just move back there for good. TAX this tax that, and tax it again. Next thing will be throwing out a Air you breath Tax. Imagine 0.01 cent tax on every Ounce of Coke, or Mountain Dew.

Didn't we fight 2 Wars over Taxes? Revolutionary War and the Civil War? Time to bring the Stars and Bars back out and learn the Rebal Yell...

Another reason why I do not want to bring a girl here to the States. THIS weekend marks the beginning of the Fall of the USA in my book. But reality the Fall of the USA started in the 90's with the signing of the NAFTA agreement, the KILLER of our Economy.
